

Discussion Questions Week 5

1. Sin has become a snicker word in our culture (e.g., chocolate cake is “sinfully delicious”). Even Christians often prefer to speak only of our mistakes, failures, or brokenness. Why must we first understand sin in order to understand the saving good news of Jesus?

Previous generations compared sin to “moral bankruptcy.” What words or metaphors accurately convey the weight of sin in our day? Sin is like _____?

2. Reading Quiz

3. All the elements of salvation are essential, but which element is most precious to you? Why?
